

Wolves and Humans Educational Trunks

The National Wildlife Federation, in cooperation with the US Forest Service, the US Fish & Wildlife Service, and the Central Idaho Wolf Steering Committee, developed 25 educational wolf trunks for use in schools. These trunks contain curricula and hands-on materials such as pelts, skulls, tracks, scat, games, books, and videos. If you are an educator interested in borrowing one of these trunks, please look for a contact person near you on the list below.
